There is no charge for meeting space or to participate in the SHARE Fair.

PART II – SHARE FAIR:

We hope you will participate in the SHARE Fair that will be held Sunday, July 27 from 1:30pm to 5:00pm. This free Fair will provide opportunities to share your specialized information and expertise about your area of research. Each BOF will be provided with one or two 6’ draped tables and two chairs per table. Neither electrical power nor free Internet connectivity will be provided.

Participating BOF will be provided with one or two draped tables and two chairs per table. The BOF may display and give away materials relevant to family history or research. It is responsible for shipping, delivery, receipt and storage of any items to be displayed. Arrangements should be made directly with the hotel. Note that the hotel does not allow taping or pinning anything to their walls. BOFs should plan to set up their tables one hour before the SHARE Fair starts and remove all materials and vacate the hall by 5:30pm. Neither electrical power nor free Internet connectivity will be provided. Table locations will be assigned. Although we anticipate being able to accommodate all BOFs that apply by the deadline, space is limited. So, the sooner you respond, the better.
